

Corporate Security Manager (m/f/diverse)

Description

In this role you are responsible for:

- › Assessing and mitigating security related global risks in order to protect our people, safeguard business continuity and avoid negative impact on VT image and performance
- › Developing and delivering comprehensive security concepts and services for various internal stakeholders
- › Developing and aligning global security and crisis management related policies and standards
- › Monitoring international legal security regulations and customer requirements to ensure compliance
- › Maintaining the Security Management System
- › Consulting internal stakeholders on security related topics
- › Coordinate business outsourcing of security services and maintain strategic relationship with service providers

Qualifications

- › Several years of experience in the field of security, ideally in security authorities (military, police or intelligence; federal or state level) and/or global security function
- › Several years of experience in functional leadership and leading international networks
- › Experience in Crisis Management
- › Expertise in Risk Management Standards and Methods
- › Experience as Security Auditor (m/f/diverse)
- › Expertise in ISMS and associated international standards
- › IT knowledge (MS Office, Cloud, Network, Encryption Solutions)
- › Expertise in global Project Management
- › Fluent English and German language skills (written and spoken)
- › Excellent communication and networking skills, high personal integrity, discretion, very high reliability, ability to handle critical incidents, business acumen, assertiveness, high intercultural competence

Vitesco Technologies offers efficient and clean powertrain technologies. The focus is on intelligent systems and components for the electrification of vehicles as well as electronic control systems, sensors, actuators and exhaust aftertreatment solutions.

Postulez

Date d'admission

Référence

147292BR

Fonction

Health Safety and Security

Site

Regensburg

Contact

Contact

Lisa Marie Klein

Xing Profil